

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Commercial Finance

We represent major regional banks and other lending institutions in substantial and complex commercial loan transactions. Such transactions include conventional credit facilities such as revolving lines of credit, equipment leases and asset based loans; construction and permanent mortgage loans; as well as more complex matters such as leveraged buyouts representing senior lenders (including negotiation of complex intercreditor agreements with mezzanine and other junior lenders).

Members

- James G. Cook