

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Shareholder Disputes

Businesses with multiple shareholders or controlling members face unique challenges when those stakeholders have different ideas as to how their business should operate, spend capital, or make critical business decisions.

Sheehan Phinney's Shareholder/Member Dispute attorneys specialize in all matters related to stakeholder disputes and claims, including:

- Breaches of fiduciary duty
- Minority shareholder rights
- Partner rights
- LLC member rights
- Management compensation concerns
- Management deadlocks
- Buy-out agreements
- Shareholder or member freeze-outs
- Appraisal rights
- Derivative actions

With years of experience litigating these claims, our attorneys can suggest the best course of action to help you resolve your company's shareholder/member dispute in the most cost-effective way possible.

Members

- Ryan P. Lirette
- David W. McGrath
- Robert H. Miller
- Mark J. Ventola
- Charles M. Waters